

★ SparC – Math_(TEAL and ITLS) ★

QR
code

★ What are we doing?

: Research on young students' math learning as they play with coding toys

!!! APPLY NOW !!!

★ Whom are we looking for?

: TWO outstanding undergraduate students for Undergraduate Research Assistant (URA) positions

: with interest and experience in elementary school mathematics teaching and/or integrated STEM teaching to work on a research project during the Fall 2024 and Spring 2025 semesters

★ What are YOU going to do as a URA?

: Tasks including preparing materials, collecting data (videotaping teaching episodes and taking field notes) and organizing data (downloading the videos to our secure folder, scanning field notes, etc.).

: Other tasks related to the project could include data analysis and writing.

★ How much will you get paid? $15/hour for 10 hours per week over two semesters (24Fa-25Sp)

For more information, contact Jessica Shumway, Associate Professor of Mathematics Education (jessica.shumway@usu.edu)